SUBJECT: SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

The purpose of this memorandum is to advise that captioned Committee will invoke forty-eight hour rule on all Senate Judiciary testimony.

DETAILS:

On February 1, 1979, Patricia M. Wald, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Legislative Affairs, advised Special Agent Legal Counsel Division, that Senator Ted Kennedy, Chairman of captioned Committee, intends to "invoke and enforce the forty-eight hour rule" on all Senate Judiciary testimony.

The Senator wants all statements hand delivered to the Committee two days in advance of the appearance of any witness. This will necessitate delivery of any statement to the Department four days in advance of any appearance before this Committee in order to insure Department of Justice and Office of Management and Budget clearance prior to delivery to the Hill.

RECOMMENDATION:

For information.
